St Michael The Archangel, Dundry, wins National Lottery Support

St Michaels church in Dundry, has received support from the Heritage Lottery Fund for urgent high level structural and roof repairs, it was announced today.

The restoration project aims to carry out essential conservation work to this Grade I listed church and stop further water entering the building and ensure that this historic place of worship can reopen for services and other community activities.

Due to its prominent hilltop location offering fantastic views over the city of Bristol, the church is popular for weddings and tourist groups. Visitors can also enjoy a panoramic view by climbing the 15th century tower.

Commenting on the award Revd. Charles Roberts said:

“We are absolutely delighted that the HLF has placed its support behind our project for St Michael’s Church in Dundry. With their help we hope to complete the vital repairs to the roof and reopen the church for worship, enhance other facilities for community use and ensure the heritage of the building remains for the next generation. St Michael’s Church is a living landmark for Bristol and the surrounding area and we are committed to making sure it stays that way. Thank you HLF for helping to make this possible”
